

1. A very happy Easter to everyone. It's a promising time when we look forward to spring and new life. Can you take a few minutes to honestly check what Holy Week, Good Friday, Resurrection mean to you? No text book answers. At a personal, heart level, are those days meaningful? Whatever your answer, is there anything you want to learn from here onwards?
2. Our area comes up high on the Government's Index of Social Deprivation – many areas in the north east are there also. If you could wave a magic wand and change one aspect of life as you see it around us, what would it be – and why would you choose that?
3. What have you missed about Church since the start of COVID? What does that say to you?
4. Is there a particular individual – or individuals, in your family tree who you'd like to know more about? Go back as far as you wish.
5. Most of us don't need convincing about climate change and care for the planet. What are you doing in real practical actions that make a difference? If you've not decided yet, can you do that today?
6. What do you do to relax when/if you're stressed? Would this be worth sharing with others and hearing what they do?
7. How dependent are you on television, your phone, your car, your family, friends, God?

Thank you.
