

CONVERSATIONS

NUMBER 115
FEBRUARY 2022

1. Have the recent happenings by Government politicians and staff members attending parties against the law changed your feelings about parliament? Are you always honest? What have you learnt about your own values and how you live them?
2. What do you find beautiful? Have you got 3 or 4 or more examples? Can you share them with others and find out what their choices are?
3. Covid and virus mutations have been very restricting and many people have lost their lives. The heartache and emotional/mental health issues have affected us all, no matter how well we think we've managed. We'll not return to the old normal but how can you help to lift your and others' spirits?
4. Do you like to read? Have you tried reading out loud? If so, does this help you to get a better taste for words? Have you ever written a song, a poem or taken time to improve your handwriting? Are these things important to you?
5. Do you buy The Big Issue? Do you help Big Issue sellers who seek help from the public? Do you give money to beggars, buskers or collectors with tins outside shops raising funds for charity?
6. Have you read anything from the Scriptures this last week? Tell someone if you have favourite stories or parts of the Scriptures that speak to you personally.
7. Spring is coming soon. Do you thank God for creation? Do you take care to respect nature and promote keeping streets and countryside clean?

Thank you
