Third, Third Sunday of the Year

Seeing the wood for the trees

One of the popular poems that came to us after the First World War was Trees by Joyce Kilmer, a sergeant in the 165th infantry (69th New York) AEF who was killed in action near Ourcy, 30 July 1918.

> I think that I shall never see a poem lovely as a tree. A tree whose hungry mouth is prest against the earth's sweet flowing breast; a tree that looks at God all day, and lifts her leafy arms to pray; a tree that may in summer wear a nest of robins in her hair; upon whose bosom snow has lain; who intimately lives with rain. Poems are made by fools like me, but only God can make a tree.

Food Bank - Once again many thanks for your donations. The amount of food that has been requested this past week by both single people and families is quite staggering. On Thursday we had empty shelves for many of the goods, whereas the week before we had so much it would not fit on those same shelves! What a difference a week makes! We have no tinned fruit, custard, tomatoes, tinned meals, meat, rice pudding, jars of pasta sauces, paste and jam. We are also very low on tinned potatoes, vegetables, long life milk and pasta snacks. We are very aware that this is a big ask and just one tin a week from each family makes such a difference. You would be truly moved if you heard or saw some of the distressed people who have to ask for help because they have no one else to turn to. So on their behalf can we say an absolute heartfelt thank you. May we also ask for any strong carrier bags you may have or get whist doing your Christmas shopping, our supplies are now very diminished.

Web site Resources - We invite you to visit a new website. New Pilgrim Path: www.newpilgrimpath.ie Since the site was launched on the 1st Sunday of Advent, 2016, visitor numbers have grown steadily and now average in the region of a thousand a month. The site is inspired by Pope Francis' enthusiasm for the internet. He urges Christians to "walk the streets of the digital highways... Let us boldly become citizens of the digital world... in order to dialogue with people today and to help them encounter Christ". New Pilgrim Path is aimed at helping fellow Christian travellers of all denominations to mine the rich resources of the Web in the search for meaning and belonging. Because the choice is so huge and, at times, bewildering, we provide a brief description of every site we have visited. This aims at helping visitors to New Pilgrim Path find the sites that are likely to be relevant and interesting to them at the particular stage of their journey. We have pages devoted to a range of resources, including daily prayer, Divine Office, online retreats, inspirational reflections, spiritual poetry, religious broadcasts, and many others. So many people access information and communicate on line now and this is a resource you may not only wish to check out but to use for yourself and others. If you have other suggestions you would like to share, please let us know.

Please pray for the
